GENERAL RULES AND ENTRY PROCEDURE

1. Mission Statement: Fleadhanna Ceoil shall be held to propagate, consolidate and perpetuate our Irish traditional music, both vocal and instrumental, dance as well as An Teanga Gaeilge, by presenting it in a manner worthy of its dignity, and in accordance with the Aims and Objectives of Comhaltas Ceoltóirí Éireann. It is not intended that competitions should be merely a means by which a competitor may gain a prize or defeat a rival, but rather a medium in which 'these competitors may pace each other on the road to excellence'.

2. All competitions shall be traditional in character and in conformity with the Bunreacht of Comhaltas Ceoltóirí Éireann.

3. Rialacha Fleadhanna Ceoil and Clár na gComórtas provide for all CCÉ Fleadh Competitions listed 1-51. The procedures, guidelines and rules outlined in Rialacha Fleadhanna Ceoil and Clár na gComórtas apply to all such competitions 1-51.

4. Entry Procedure:

- i. Entries, in Gaeilge if possible, shall be submitted to the CCÉ Branch Rúnaí/Branch Secretary not later than six weeks prior to the first day of the Fleadh competitions. The CCÉ Rúnaí/Branch Secretary shall submit these entries to the County Secretary/Rúnaí Chontae not later than five weeks prior to the first day of the Fleadh competitions. Late entries shall not be accepted after the closing date.
- ii. The fee structure is outlined on the Fleadh Entry Form.
 - Note: In duet and trio competitions, the appropriate competition entry fee for both CCÉ member and for non member shall apply.
- iii. Fleadh Cheoil competitions are open to non-members of CCÉ, entries to be sent with the appropriate fee directly to the County Secretary six weeks prior to the Fleadh Cheoil.
- iv. Competitors may not enter in the name of their teachers or in the name of any other organization other than a Comhaltas Branch unit. Non-member of CCÉ should enter their names and home address. Full addresses should not appear on the Clár
- v. Competitors, who are members of CCÉ, who qualify from County/Regional Fleadhanna to Provincial Fleadhanna and from Provincial Fleadhanna to All-Ireland Fleadhanna, do not pay an entry fee to the Fleadh for which they have qualified but do pay venue admission charge at the Fleadh in question. Fleadh entry fees do not cover venue admission charges.
- vi. Winners of O-18(D) Competitions, winners of Mixed Set O-35 (47L) and Pipe Bands any Age (30E) at Fleadh Cheoil na hÉireann in the previous year are ineligible to compete in the same competition, in the County/Regional or Provincial Fleadh, having as current All-Ireland Champions in these competitions, right-of-entry to the successive Fleadh Cheoil na hÉireann. This does not apply to winners of Newly Composed Ballads, Amhráin Nua-Cheaptha and Newly Composed Tunes.

5. Residency: In the case of all solo competitions, duet and trio competitions, eligible competitors are confined to residents of the County or Region in which the Fleadh is being held. In the case of Céilí Dancing, Set Dancing, Céilí Bands, Marching Bands and Grúpaí Ceoil, it is recommended that as far as possible, these also be residents of the county or region. Competitors shall be deemed to be residents of the County or Region only if ordinarily resident in that County/Region for a period of not less than six months in the previous twelve prior to the date of the qualifying Fleadh. In the case of competitions for Newly Composed Ballads in Irish, Newly Composed Ballads in English, and Newly Composed Tunes, the composer must be a resident of the county or region.

6. Age Groups: The following age groups apply to Fleadhanna Ceoil competitions.

A	U-12: a person whose 12th or earlier birthday occurs on any date in the year of Fleadhanna Ceoil competitions.

• Note 2: Comp 3. Feadóig Mhór/Flute: Instruments pitched in E Flat or below, to include traditional simple system wooden flutes, also Boehm system, Radcliffe system etc. Flutes pitched higher than E Flat must compete in the Rogha Ghléas competition.

• Note 3: Comp 4. Feadóig/Whistle: A whistle can be defined as an instrument with a fipple and not more than six finger holes. The pitch of the instrument or the material from which it is made is irrelevant.

• Note 4: Comp 9. Orgán Béil/Mouth Organ: A diatonic instrument in a fixed key, as distinct from a harmonica. A harmonica is a chromatic instrument, incorporating the use of a mechanism or lever, and must be played in the Rogha Gléas competition.

• Note 5: Comp 13. Mileoideon/Melodeon: The single row accordion is not a melodeon and is not acceptable in the melodeon competition.

• Note 6: Comp 14. Rogha Gléas/Miscellaneous: This category caters for all instruments, on which the melody can be and is played, not catered for in the competitions 1-13. Electronic, mains or battery-powered instruments are not accepted. In competitions for Rogha Ghléas, a competitor may compete on one instrument only. In all Miscellaneous competitions the instrument, and tuning if relevant, being played shall be listed on the Official Fleadh Entry Form. This competitor/instrument combination must be maintained at all subsequent Fleadhanna in that year. In all Fleadh programmes the competitor listings for Miscellaneous Competitions shall include the competitors name and instrument. The following instruments are acceptable in Miscellaneous Competitions: Viola (body and bow), Single Row Accordion, 3 Row Accordion, 3 or 5 row Continental Accordion, Harmonica, Saxophone, Clarinet, Pipes other than Uilleann Pipes, Bouzouki 6 and 8 string), Guitar (6string), Tenor Guitar (4string), Recorder, 5 string Banjo, fife, piccolo, hammer dulcimer and cello (body and bow). Any instrument not listed above needs to be classified as acceptable by the Ardchomhairle

• Note 7: Comp 15. Tionlacan/Accompaniment: Tionlacan/Accompaniment is restricted to piano, harp, guitar, bouzouki, mandola, mando-cello etc. Competitors in this competition use accompaniment as opposed to melody. The accompanist in the accompaniment competition should not be penalised for starting first, i.e. setting the tempo. The aim of the competition is to adjudicate on the accompaniment only. In all Accompaniment competitions the instrument being played shall be listed on the Official Fleadh Entry Form. This competitor/instrument combination must be maintained at all subsequent Fleadhanna in that year. In all Fleadh Programmes the competitor listings for Accompaniment Competitions shall include the competitors name and instrument. A maximum of two musicians be permitted to play for accompaniment competitions.

• Note 8 Comp 16. Bodhrán: A maximum of two musicians are permitted to play for competitors in the Bodhrán competition.

• Note 9 Comp 17. Céilí Band Drums/Drumaí Céilí: A maximum of two musicians are permitted to play for competitors in the céilí drumming competition.

• Note 10: Competitions 50 and 51, Storytelling and Scéalaíocht, see relevant guidelines.

9. Electronic or amplified instruments are not acceptable in any competition. Where a standard piano is not available, the organising Fleadh Coiste must provide a weighted key electronic piano. Competitors are not permitted to use their own electronic piano.

10. One instrument only: With the exception of competitors playing the Mouth-Organ and Grúpaí Ceoil Competitions, the following rule applies: In Solo, Duet, Trio, Céilí Band and Marching Band competitions, competitors may not change instrument during the performance.

PERFORMANCE REQUIREMENTS:

COMPETITIONS 1-39

11. Competitions 1- 17:

Age groups A and B: One tune from each of two tune categories listed above

Age Group C: One tune from each of three tune categories listed above

Age Group D: One tune from each of four tune categories listed above

- Note: Senior Fiddle (1D), Flute (3D), Whistle (4D), Uilleann Pipes (7D) must include a slow air as one of their four tunes.

Competitors shall play each tune twice only. In the case of a tune, which is played singly, a competitor may play such a tune three times (AB AB AB). Competitors who play extra tunes - e.g. two jigs or two reels in lieu of one, shall be adjudicated on the first tune of the selection only and shall be penalized by the deduction of two marks for each extra tune attempted.

12. Competitions 18-22: Slow Air competitions

Each Competitor shall submit a list of airs to the adjudicator and play as outlined in Age Groups A-D

Age Group A: 1 air from list of 2 (adjudicator's choice)

Age Group B: 2 airs from a list of 4 (adjudicator selects the first, competitor the second)

Age Group C: 2 airs from list of 6 (adjudicator selects the first, competitor the second)

Age Group D: 2 airs from list of 8 (adjudicator selects both airs)

Only slow airs in the traditional idiom will be accepted.

No penalty shall be levied on a competitor in the Slow Airs Competition, if he/she plays the air through, only once.

13. Competitions 23-24 Duets/Trios

Age Groups A and B: One tune from each of two tune categories listed above

Age Group C: One tune from each of three tune categories listed above

Age Group D: One tune from each of four tune categories listed above

A Duet shall comprise of two melody instruments. A senior duet (Age Group D) shall comprise of two different melody instruments. Duet members must at all times play the melody of the tune.

A Trio shall comprise of three melody instruments. A senior trio (Age Group D) shall comprise of at least two different melody instruments. Trio members must at all times play the melody.

In Duets and Trios, full names and addresses and Comhaltas Branches where appropriate, of all participants must be listed on the entry forms. The instrument being played by each competitor in the ensemble shall be clearly listed with the competitors name on the Official Fleadh Entry Form and subsequently in Fleadh Programmes. This competitor/instrument combination must be maintained at all subsequent Fleadhanna in that year; having qualified, no substitution of instrument or person allowed.

14. Competition 25 Céilí Bands

A Céilí Band shall consist of not less than 5 and not more than 10 members.

Age Groups A and B: Céilí Bands shall play one tune from each of two tune categories.

Age Group C: Céilí Bands shall play two reels in succession, plus one tune from each of two other tune categories.

Age Group D: Senior Céilí Bands, tunes required are two reels in succession, two jigs in succession and a maximum of two tunes played in succession from each of two other tune categories (See Rule 7)

15. Competition 26 Grúpaí Ceoil

Grúpaí Ceoil shall consist of a minimum of 4 and maximum of 20 members. Each group shall perform its own choice of music for a minimum of 6 minutes and a maximum of 8 minutes, but with a limit of 10 minutes on stage. In competitions for Grúpaí Ceoil, whistlers and lilters may be included, as well as players of bodhrán and bones, but piano and drums are not permitted.

Special attention should be paid to selection of tunes and efforts should be made to play tunes other than jigs, reels and hornpipes, e.g. slow airs, set dances, marches, flings, mazurkas, polkas, slides, schottisches, planxties, barn dances, clan marches, harp music and waltzes etc. to provide as much variety as possible. Slow airs need not be played by a solo performer. The programme presented by all Grúpaí Ceoil must be from within the Irish traditional idiom. All Grúpaí Ceoil are required, as part of their programme, to perform at least one dance tune, played at least once in unison by all members of the group who play melodic instruments.

The group shall perform its own choice of music for a period of 6 to 8 minutes. 2 marks shall be deducted for each minute or part thereof, in excess of 8 minutes or less than 6 minutes as determined by the adjudicator. Attention should also be given to instrumental arrangements and presentation of the music. A list of music pieces in the order to be played, e.g. slip jig, march, etc. and a list of instruments shall be submitted by each group leader to the competition clerk prior to the performance.

16. Competitions 27-30 Marching Bands

Comp 27 Bannaí Máirseála, Cairdín – Accordion (Marching) Bands U-18 and O-18 (F and D)

Age Groups B and C: Two songs from a list of four submitted (two slow and two lively)

The first song is selected by the adjudicator and the second contrasting song by the competitor.

Age Group D: Two Songs from a list of six submitted (4 slow and 2 lively). The first song is selected by the adjudicator, and the second contrasting song by the competitor. Lists must clearly denote the lively songs.

18. Competitions 35 and 36: Whistling and Liling

Age groups A and B: One tune from each of two tune categories listed above. (Rule7)

Age Group C: One tune from each of three tune categories listed above

Age Group D: One tune from each of four tune categories listed above

19. Recall: No ties are permitted for 1st, 2nd or 3rd place. An adjudicator may recall a competitor to perform again. In the event of a recall for solo, duet, or trio, one new piece must be performed. Recall for Céilí Bands requirements: Age Groups A and B: one new piece, C and D two new reels in succession. In Amhránaíocht and Singing, all age groups, the recalled singer must sing one new song. Recalled competitors must present themselves within 30 minutes. Failure to report will forfeit advantage.

20. Competitions 37, 38 and 39: Amhráin Nuacheaptha, Newly Composed Songs in English and Newly Composed Tunes Age Group: Any Age (E)

The tune or song must not have been previously entered in any Fleadh Cheoil competition, nor have been previously published or commercially recorded. The composer(s) must be resident of the county or region in which the song or tune is entered. The newly composed tune must be traditional in character and must adhere to the tune categories specified for Fleadh Cheoil competitions. A written copy of the tune, in staff notation only, must be submitted with the competition entry not less than one calendar month prior to the first day of the County or Regional Fleadh. Only this original version of the tune, as submitted with entry, is acceptable in performance. i.e. no edits or changes are accepted should the tune or song subsequently qualify for Provincial or All-Ireland Fleadhanna. This original version must be performed at subsequent competition(s) should the tune qualify. The newly composed tune shall be played two times through. The first time through, only the original version of the tune, as submitted with entry, is acceptable in performance; however, the second time through, variations are permitted.

The newly composed song must have a lively tempo or slow tempo as previously defined. The tune or song must be performed by a solo musician, or singer without accompaniment. The composer(s) may designate a musician or singer to perform the tune or song, and this performer may reside outside the county or region of the original entry. The tune or song will be judged solely on the merits of the composition and not on the standard of the performance. The name and full address of the composer(s) shall be written on the sheet containing the tune notation/song lyrics. A copy of the original song lyrics/tune will be forwarded together with the Fleadh results to the appropriate Provincial Fleadh and to Fleadh Cheoil na hÉireann if the tune qualifies.

- Note: It is understood that the entries for Competitions 37, 38 and 39 will comply with the general entry procedure, Rule 4 Section (i) ; entries, in Gaeilge if possible, shall be submitted to the CCÉ Branch Rúnaí/Branch Secretary not later than six weeks prior to the first day of the Fleadh competitions.

Entries for Competitions 37 and 38 must be accompanied by a copy of the original song words/lyrics and entries for Competition 39 must be accompanied by a written copy of the tune in staff notation only).

It is essential that the same dancers will dance in the event of a recall and no substitutions are allowed for a recall. Recalled competitors must present themselves within 30 minutes. Failure to report will forfeit advantage.
- x. Two 4-hand dances will not meet the requirements of 8-Hand Competition.
- xi. The adjudicators will signify that they have seen enough of the dance by ringing a bell. Competitors are advised to have the selected dance rehearsed in full.
- xii. Simple and appropriate dress code: no school of dancing costumes allowed; no dancing wigs allowed; no tips or built-up shoes allowed.
- xiii. Marching on and off stage to music accompaniment is not permitted.
- xiv. The adjudicators' decision is final.
- xv. The managers/mentors/teachers of céilí dancing teams register in writing the name of dance and dancers, as well as age details and the parts being danced on the day, prior to the competition.
- xvi. Managers, mentors, teachers etc. are not allowed to coach teams during performance.
- xvii. Managers, mentors, teachers are allowed to communicate with the musicians prior to performance on stage.
- xviii. Winners of over 18 (D) Céilí dancing: Ladies and Mixed competitions at Fleadh Cheoil na hÉireann in the previous year are ineligible to compete in the same competition at County/Regional or Provincial Fleadh.
- xix. The organising committee is responsible for providing the musical accompaniment. All teams must dance to the music provided. Musical accompaniment is confined to acoustic instruments only – no electronic devices such as rhythm/drum machines or such like devices are allowed. Keyboard in piano mode only may be used. Musicians must be competent to play for all Céilí dances and be familiar with the tunes required.
- xx. Dancing to pre-recorded music tracks is not allowed for céilí dancing competitions. The same musical accompaniment must be used for all competitors in any one competition in céilí competitions.
- xxi. Only amplification/P.A. system(s) supplied by the organising coiste is allowed.

This also applies to All Ireland Senior and O-35 Winners who qualify automatically for Fleadh na hÉireann in the following year. In the event of a recall, no further substitution is allowed.

viii. Parts: Competitors in the senior set dancing and over 35 years competitions are required to dance three parts of a traditional set or half set. Two of the parts will be of their own choice, and one part nominated by the adjudicator at the time of each performance. Competitors in junior sets and half sets will be required to dance two parts of a traditional set.

ix. Adjudication: Where adjudicators are seated apart, they shall mark their adjudication sheets separately and the final result compiled using, using the present points system (11, 7, 5, 4, 3, 2, 1,).

In the event of a tie of points the following shall apply: The call steward/clerk will refer to the placing already given by the relevant adjudicators, and take the overall majority of the relevant highest placing already allocated to the tied teams, so as to calculate a final and clear result and to minimize the number of teams having to perform again. (The majority decision shall always apply: in the case of three and five adjudicators, a 2:1 and at least a 3:2 majority respectively will apply).

In the event of a further tie, teams will be required to dance as per recall at (x) below.

x. Recall: Fé 12, 12-15 and 15-18: One new part (not previously danced in the competition by the team). Senior and Over 35: One new part (not previously danced in the competition by the team).

When a team has selected a set with only three parts they must dance one new part from a different set. It is essential that the same dancers will dance in the event of a recall and no substitutions are allowed for a recall. Recalled competitors must present themselves within 30 minutes. Failure to report will forfeit advantage.

xi. While competitors in the full set competition may also dance in the half set competition and vice-versa, only recognised traditional half sets will be accepted e.g. Wexford Half Set. East Galway Half Set etc. Adapting or converting a recognised full set to a half set is not permitted.

xii. The managers/mentors/teachers of Set dancing teams register in writing the name of dance and dancers, as well as age details and parts of sets being danced on the day, prior to the competition.

xiii. All dancing must cease at the end of the recognised part.

Qualifying Fleadhanna may also be held in such other overseas areas as are approved by the Central Executive Council (CEC/Ardchomhairle).

29. Competitors from countries outside the seven qualifying 'Provincial Fleadhanna': Competitors of a sufficiently high standard, normally resident in countries where no qualifying Fleadhanna are held should send written notification of their wish to compete at Fleadh Cheoil na hÉireann not later than one calendar month prior to the Fleadh.

30. Competition Venues: All competitions at Fleadhanna Ceoil shall be held indoors, apart from Marching Bands, which shall be held in outdoor arenas of 40 x 20 metres.

31. Video and Audio Recordings of competitions are expressly forbidden, without prior written permission of Competitor or Parent/Guardian on behalf of the competitor, if under 18. The organizing committee, or individual(s) nominated by such committee, shall consider all applications for such facilities.

32. Prize-winners and Qualification to Provincial/All-Ireland Fleadh: Winners of First and Second prizes shall qualify from County/Regional Fleadhanna to Provincial Fleadhanna and from Provincial Fleadhanna to Fleadh Cheoil na hÉireann, in the same year.

33. Copies of Adjudication Sheets shall be sent to the competitor on request, ten days after the Fleadh on the prepayment of €1 per sheet (plus postage). All original adjudication sheets shall be retained by the Fleadh/Unit secretary for a three month period following Fleadh Cheoil na hÉireann. In the case of recommended 3rds copies of the sheets will be retained where the originals have been forwarded to Provincial level.

COMPETITION PROCEDURE

34. Competitors must perform in person, unless in Newly Composed Song, Amhráin Nuacheaptha and Newly Composed Tunes, at the competition venue and as far as possible, compete in the order in which they are called by the Call Steward. A competitor who fails to present him/herself when called for a specific competition, and who has not notified the Call Steward on duty, of a just cause for his/her absence, shall be disqualified from the competition.

35. The Call Steward shall terminate a competition after the completion of the performance by the last available competitor, unless the Call Steward has been previously notified that the missing competitor is detained while competing in another competition, in which case the competition shall, at the discretion of the Call Steward, be kept open for a maximum of fifteen minutes. Once the Call Steward has closed the competition, it cannot be reopened.

36. Breaches of Rules: Breaches of Rule 2, Rules 4 to 25 inclusive and Rule 34 shall entail disqualification.

37. No communication with the adjudicator is permissible on the day of competition at the Fleadh venue except through the Call Stewards.

38. Prompting and coaching of competitors during the course of any competition is prohibited.

39. Objection: In the event of an objection, the aggrieved party shall within seven days of the termination of the Fleadh, lodge with the Relevant Unit Secretary (Regional/County Secretary in the case of Regional/County Fleadh, Provincial Secretary in the case of provincial Fleadh and Ard Rúnaí in the case of Fleadh na hÉireann) a written statement, setting forth the exact grounds of complaint together with a fee of €20, or equivalent in other currencies. These objections shall be considered by the appropriate body, i.e. Regional Board, County Board, Provincial Council or CEC and if the objection is upheld, the €20 shall be returned; otherwise it shall be forfeited to the Board/Council.

40. Disputes involving interpretation of Fleadh Rules shall be resolved by reference to 'Rialacha Fleadhanna Ceoil'

ADJUDICATION PROCEDURE

41. Only Adjudicators from the official panel, and selected by the County/Region, Province or Ard Chomhairle, may officiate at any Fleadh. In exceptional circumstances, however, special permission may be sought of CEC or Provincial Council, applicable to All-Ireland, Provincial, County or Regional Fleadh, to engage a person not included in this panel.

42. Adjudicators for solo competitions must not compete in same Fleadh Solo competition of that year, and should as far as possible, be drawn from outside that County, Region or Province.

43. Normally one adjudicator shall officiate at all solo competitions, and two at duet, trio, Grúpaí Ceoil and Céilí Bands, three at Marching Bands competitions. (Adjudicators may confer). One adjudicator shall give a brief oral adjudication at the conclusion of the competition. An individual mark is awarded for each tune played or song sung, except for Grúpaí Ceoil and Marching Band competitions.

44. Adjudicators may withhold the awarding of a first prize, should competitors fail to reach a meritorious standard.

45. Where a competitor fails to compete, a note clearly indicating this shall be written on that competitor's adjudication sheet and the sheet then signed by the adjudicator/s and the adjudicators clerk or call steward.

46. Adjudication – Céilí Bands and Marching Bands:

i. In all Céilí Band Competitions at Fleadh Cheoil na hÉireann a minimum of four (Five if possible) adjudicators will officiate. Seated apart, they shall mark their adjudication sheet separately and the final results compiled using the recognised points system: 11, 7, 5, 4, 3, 2, 1.

ii. In Senior Céilí Band Competitions at Provincial Fleadhanna a minimum of Four (Five if possible) adjudicators will officiate. Seated apart, they shall mark their adjudication sheets separately and the final result compiled using the recognised points system: 11, 7, 5, 4, 3, 2, 1.

iii. In all other Céilí Band competitions at Provincial Fleadhanna where adjudicators are seated apart a minimum of four (Five if possible) adjudicators will officiate. They shall mark their adjudication sheets separately and the final result compiled using the recognised points system: 11, 7, 5, 4, 3, 2, 1.

iv. In Marching Band competitions, adjudicators may confer and come to an agreed decision.

47. At Fleadh Cheoil na hÉireann an adjudicator may not be used in the same competition on two consecutive years, where possible.

48. Recommendations: Winners of First and Second prizes shall qualify from County/ Regional Fleadhanna to Provincial Fleadhanna in the same year, together with a maximum of one other competitor in each competition, if the adjudicator is satisfied that the competitors have reached a sufficiently high standard in the appropriate grade.

Endorsement: Where a competitor other than first or second prize winner is nominated, the appropriate, original, adjudication sheet, suitably endorsed and signed by the Adjudicator, must accompany the official returns. Nominations not accompanied by such a sheet cannot be accepted by Provincial Council. Such nominations are entirely a matter for the Adjudicator and should only be made in the case of an exceptionally good performance.

In the case of competitions judged by adjudicators sitting apart, and utilising a points system, the following procedure shall apply:

On the allocation of first, second and third prize based on the points system by the competition steward each adjudicator will be informed, on an individual basis of the placings. Each adjudicator shall then individually be asked as to whether they regard the third place as being of significant merit to be recommended to the Provincial Fleadh. The majority decision shall always apply, in the case of three and five adjudicators a 2:1 and at least a 3:2 majority respectively. In the case of 4 adjudicators a majority will also apply – a minimum of 3 out the 4 adjudicators need to endorse the recommendation.

In the case of Comhrá Gaeilge competitions, a maximum of five in each category may qualify for the Provincial Fleadh and Fleadh Cheoil na hÉireann.

86. Should it be found necessary to change the date of Fleadh Cheoil na hÉireann, the Ardchomhairle shall have the authority to do so, without reference to Congress. No other Comhaltas function shall be held on those dates.

87. The Centre may be located in any County having a strong County Board, and an active branch of Comhaltas Ceoltóirí Éireann at the centre.

88. The Provincial Council nominating the centre shall, through its Secretary forward to the General Secretary of Comhaltas Ceoltóirí Éireann prior to the appropriate CEC meeting, information supplied by the Branch applying for the Fleadh regarding the following:

- i. Population of the proposed centre
- ii. Numerical strength of the local branch
- iii. Facilities for competitions, concerts, céilithe: number, capacity, suitability of halls
- iv. Travelling facilities
- v. Facilities for lodgings and catering
- vi. Fundraising Structures

After the receipt of each valid application the Standing Committee shall visit the proposed venues and report to the CEC meeting at which the Fleadh is being allocated on the suitability of the proposed venues.

89. The venue shall be determined, at a meeting of the Ardchomhairle/CEC, from nominations submitted by branches to County Boards and recommended by the Provincial Councils. Provincial Councils shall submit one nominated venue only. It shall be decided by secret ballot of the Ardchomhairle/CEC. Where there are three or more nominations, the elimination system shall be adopted.

90. The CEC shall have complete jurisdiction over the Fleadh and in all matters appertaining to the Fleadh. Its rulings shall be final.

91. The County Board Sponsoring the Fleadh Cheoil shall convene a meeting consisting of members of the County Board and the local Branch. This meeting shall elect the Fleadh Executive Committee. This FEC shall be answerable to the Central Executive Council (Ardchomhairle). Members of sub-committees shall be subject to the prior approval of the FEC.

92. All monies received by the FEC shall on receipt be lodged to the credit of Comhaltas Ceoltóirí Éireann in a current account in a Bank approved by the CEC in the names of Fleadh Cheoil na hÉireann with signatures of two treasurers (one member of the County and the other a nominee of the CEC). All drawings on the said account shall be by cheque bearing their joint signatures.

93. The conduct of the Fleadh shall be reviewed and if necessary, revised or amended by the CEC in the light of progress reported at the CEC meeting held three months subsequent to the date on which the Fleadh was allocated to the centre, provided that such revisions and amendments are in keeping with Rules for Fleadhanna.

94. Admission Charges to Fleadh Cheoil na hÉireann competition centres, céilithe and concerts shall be fixed by the CEC in conjunction with the local organisers, when allocating the Fleadh to a venue, and reduced admission charge shall apply to U-18s.

95. Qualifiers: All competitions at Fleadh Cheoil na hÉireann are confined to the following:

- i. Those who have secured first and second prizes, together with the five prize winners in the 'Comhrá Gaeilge' competitions at the Provincial Fleadhanna- the seven qualifying Fleadhanna as per Rule 3 - in the current year.
- ii. Competitors of a sufficiently high standard, normally resident in countries where no qualifying Fleadhanna are held and whose entries reach Cultúrlann na hÉireann not later than one calendar month prior to the Fleadh. Where more than two entries are received for any one competition from any one country, the Comhaltas Competitions Officer shall arrange an elimination competition prior to the competition proper.
- iii. Those who won First Prize in the O-18 (Age Group D) at Fleadh Cheoil na hÉireann in the previous year, the winners of the O-35 Mixed Set Competition.(47L) and the Pipe Bands competition (30E) This does not include winners of Newly Composed Ballads, Amhráin Nuacheaptha and Newly Composed Tunes.

96. Programme: The Fleadh Executive Committee shall produce a Souvenir Programme, which shall contain the following information:

- i. Names of Competitors and Comhaltas Branches/Addresses, i nGaeilge if possible.
- ii. The names of the adjudicators.
- iii. The Centres for and the approximate starting times of each competition.
- iv. The names of the Fleadh Executive Committee.
- v. The names and addresses of the previous year's first prize winners.
- vi. The Perpetual Trophy available for each competition, with donor's name.
- vii. Diagram, or sketch of the town, showing the location of halls, etc.
- viii. The time schedule for the various events, Competitions, Parade, Pageants, Concerts, etc.
- ix. The names of the Officers of the Provincial Council.
- x. Articles/reports on local history, heritage, music, song, dance etc.

97. Finance:

- i. The CEC will decide the levy to be paid by the Fleadh Committee: Two-thirds to be paid by the 1st December in the year preceding the Fleadh and one-third to be paid by the end of June in the year of the Fleadh. 10% of this levy will be paid to the Sponsoring Branch, County Board and Provincial Council on receipt of Balance Sheet following the Fleadh.
- ii. All net profits shall on the issue of the balance sheet be paid to the sponsoring branch for the promotion of cultural traditions in the area, as enshrined in the Aims and Objectives of Comhaltas and as approved by the CEC.
- iii. Any losses on the Fleadh shall be borne in equal parts by the CEC, Provincial Council, County Board and local branch from their share of the levy mentioned at (i).

98. Amendments – Rialacha Fleadhanna Ceoil: Proposals for the amendment of the Rules for Fleadhanna Ceoil shall be submitted to Congress 2019 and thereafter every three years.

99. Clár na gComórtas: The CEC shall from time to time, design a Clár na gComórtas, suitable for Regional, County, Provincial and All-Ireland Fleadhanna. This Clár, obtainable from CCÉ, 32 Cearnóg Belgrave, Baile na Manach relates to official Fleadh Cheoil competitions and its content is extracted from Rialacha Fleadhanna Ceoil.
